ACADEMIC PROGRAM REVIEW – SELF-STUDY

ANNUAL CALENDAR

APRIL
Office of the Provost requests dean’s recommendations for programs to conduct self studies.

MAY
Office of the Provost informs colleges of programs selected for the next cycle.

MAY-JUNE
Initial meeting scheduled with lead college and Office of the Provost staff.

JUNE
Units begin work.

JUNE-DECEMBER
Units may consult with Director of Assessment, Director of Planning, and Director of Institutional Studies as needed.

MARCH 1
Unit submits self-study to college for review by the Dean and College Advisory Committee.

APRIL 15
College submits self-study to Office of the Provost.

MAY
Provost meets with Dean regarding self-study results, relationship to the University planning process, and beginning the unit’s action plan.

AUGUST
Provost reviews each Program Review with the University Faculty Program Advisory Committee.

SEPTEMBER
Provost provides feedback to the unit directly or through the dean.

OCTOBER
Action plan is complete and information is used to inform college planning and budget process.

18 Months Later
Unit provides progress report to dean.

11/18/08; Updated 6-3-09